THE COMMONWEALTH.

FRANKFORT.

THOMAS M. GREEN, Editor.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 27, 1857.

To Our Patrons.

We trust our subscribers, throughout the State of Kentucky, will avail themselves of the opportunity to send by their Representatives and Senators a part, at least, of their dues for subscription to The Commonwealth. We have not annoyed our subscribers with dues for some years, and we hope they will not now neglect us.

Those who may not have an opportunity of sending, as above requested, can do so by mail, at our risk.

We publish in another column an Alphabetical Roll of the Senators and Representatives composing the next General Assembly of Kentucky, which assemblies in Frankfort on Monday, the 7th day of December. We are not sure that we have this Roll accurate. We have endeavored to make it accurate from all the sources of information within our control. The members themselves will greatly oblige us, if they will report any inaccuracies at our office, or by letter.

This schedule submits the constitution to the white inhabitants of Kansas; acknowledges the people of the new State to be the only tribunal that can right fully determine what its domestic institutions shall be; and gives full, practical and fair effect to the great principles of popular sovereignty. On the 21st day of December next the electors may meet at their proper places of voting and express their opinion by ballot on the question of slavery or no slavery. If a majority shall vote in favor of slavery, then the provision which makes Kansas a slave State will remain in the constitution, and in that shape it will be laid before Congress. But if the greater number of ballots be cast the other way, that provision shall be stricken out, and then every negro in the State, or hereafter to go there, shall be free, except the few who are now there in the legal condition of servitude.

[Washington Union.]

No one in the country knows better than the editor of the Washington Union that the schedule referred to does not submit the constitution to the white inhabitants of Kansas, but that they are only allowed to determine whether or not African slavery shall become an institution of the new State. The Constitutional Convention of Kansas does not "acknowledge the people of the new State to be the only tribunal that can right fully determine what its domestic institutions shall be," but assumes to determine those institutions itself—with the single exception of the question of slavery. Therefore, that Convention does not give "full, practical, and fair effect to the great principle of popular sovereignty." In spite of the croakings of Southern fire-eaters, we confess ourselves to be one of those who doubt the wisdom of the action of the Democratic Constitutional Convention of Kansas. If the Constitution is wise and just in its provisions, it will be far better to submit it to the approval of the people than to force it upon them without giving them an opportunity of expressing their will.

A Democratic cotemporary says that one objection urged against the Topeka Convention has been, that it expressed the sentiment and resulted from the action of a small portion of the Territory. With equal force may that argument be used against the present Constitution. The Convention which framed it were elected by a minority of the voters of Kansas. While it may be said in palliation that all had the opportunity to express their choice in selecting delegates, yet it becomes a body who knew that they represented only a minority of the people, to force an organic act into being without submitting it to popular scrutiny and approval. It looks as though the Convention were afraid to submit their work for the approbation of the people. The fact of the matter is simply this: that the ultra Democratic press of the South advocated the election of Buchanan on the ground that by his election and the carrying out of the principle of the Kansas bill, Kansas would be made a slave State; but knowing that the majority of the people of Kansas would be opposed to slavery within the limits of the new State, after the election these same fire-eaters plainly saw that their falsehood and deceit would be exposed to the deluded southern people. In order to prevent such an exposure, they are anxious that the people of Kansas shall have as little to do with the Constitution as possible. It has become evident that the tactics of the Republicans of Kansas would be to stay away from the polls at the election for members of the Constitutional Convention, but to vote against the Constitution if contained in it. The Republicans staying away from the polls, the pro slavery men obtained a majority of the delegates to the Convention; and now, having secured a pro-slavery Constitution, these ultra southern men repudiate their often vaunted Democratic principles, and announce themselves opposed to submitting it to the people who would, undoubtedly, reject it. This is the subterfuge to which they have resorted to still farther hoodwink southern men, by making them believe that Democrats, as a national organization, are in favor of extending southern institutions.

But there is little probability that the Democrats of Mississippi, Alabama, Louisiana, South Carolina and Virginia, will have their anti-republican wishes gratified. The Governor of Kansas, R. J. Walker, has already said that the constitution should be submitted to the people of Kansas, not to those who were at that time in Kansas, but to all the free white male inhabitants of Kansas, of the age of twenty-one, who may be in the Territory when the vote is taken, and President Buchanan is evidently partial to such a policy. The Indianapolis Sentinel, a Democratic paper, says, "If Congress is satisfied that what is demanded for the people of Kansas has their approval, 'Kansas and her Constitution' should be received into the Union; but if they are not satisfied then should Congress refuse the application and send it back for the approval or disapproval of the people of the Territory. For the purpose of settling the difficulties in Kansas it would be unjust to do violence to the will of her people." This is the tone assumed by all Northern Democrats, and the Administration cannot afford to lose their aid and sympathy. If the Constitution is not submitted to the people of Kansas, the Democratic Congress will reject it. It will then remain to be seen what will be the course of Southern nullifiers. Will they resist and abuse the Administration, as they have poor Walker—will they Administration's escape govt? If so, will they continue to act with a party which upholds an administration whose policy is, as they contend, so injurious and false to the South? We rather think they will.

The Washington States says: "According to the New York papers there is scarcely a night passes in that city without the robbery and maltreatment of some citizen or stranger in the streets."

Washington City is in about the same condition. Citizens are not only knocked down there, but their ears cut off in pure wantonness of deviltry, in the open streets. Both New York and Washington are under Democratic government. [Plug Ugly Organ.]

It is true that these cities are under Democratic government, but it is equally true that there are enough Plug Uglies in each one of them to commit all the crimes, and villainies, and outrages that are perpetrated.—Low Paper.

It is well known that most of the villainies perpetrated in New York are executed by the denizens of the infamous locality called "The Five Points;" and the record shows that in that precinct nearly all the votes cast in the Presidential election were for Buchanan, Mr. Fillmore having but a very few. If it is possible that the American voters do all the rascality of the neighborhood, it is but another proof of the proverb "that evil communications corrupt good morals." Poor devils! how can they help being mean when surrounded by so many rascally Sag Nicks?

Gen. Wm. T. HASKELL.—We gladly announce the fact, says the Lexington Observer, that this distinguished Tennesseean, who is now fully restored to mental and physical health, was discharged from the Lunatic Asylum in this city on Monday last. His form of mental aberration, as we learn, was not of a serious or mischievous character, and resulted from over taxation of the mind in literary pursuits and temporary financial entanglements consequent upon the recent panic. He was docile and tractable, submitting himself with but slight impatience to his confinement. It was remarkable that he completely understood his own case, and had a full knowledge of the treatment he needed, and was more amused at his pleasant hallucinations than anybody else. After his first week he recovered his mental composure, its disturbance being aggravated by the injudicious manner of his arrest, the unnecessary surveillance to which he was subjected, and the inhuman treatment of the police officers who had him in charge, which, according to his consistent statement before and after his recovery, was a positive outrage upon humanity. After his transport of resentment subsided, which was in a short time, he was transferred from the wards and placed beyond the care of the attendants, in the portion of the building assigned to Dr. CHIPLEY. He and a genial companion who remained to cheer and solace him a month longer than was necessary for himself, were furnished with an elegant room, a servant to give them constant attention, while they dined at the Doctor's table, and were allowed the privileges of the grounds, with permission to visit Lexington. Gen. H. we learn, leaves for Tennessee, on Friday next, and intends to visit us again next Spring.

A WOLF IN SHEEP'S CLOTHING.—The Nashville Gazette mentions an elopement of a man named Wentworth with a married lady of that city whose name is Broadbridge. Mrs. Broadbridge is an English woman, and has resided in this country about four years. She has been married eight years, and is the mother of four children, only one of which, a little girl about five years old, is living, and is now with his father. The Gazette says "Wentworth had been residing in Nashville but a short time, and represented himself as a regular licensed preacher, but was engaged as proof reader to one of the daily printing offices. A short time ago he declined a situation in one of the other offices because a young man engaged in the establishment was addicted to the ugly habit of profane swearing." It is evident that he is a consummate rascal who has "stolen the livings of Heaven to serve the devil."

Such rascality should not be allowed to pass unscathed.

What a commentary it is upon the vulgar habit of swearing, that even this most despicable villain could not endure it.

LARGE MOVEMENT OF GRAIN.—The aggregate quantity of grain which will be shipped from New York during the month of November is about 1,500,000 bushels, of which, say two-thirds is in bags and the remainder in bulk. Last year, in November, while the extraordinary shipments of grain were taking place, the number of grain vessels which left New York was but forty-one, whereas it is calculated that not less than sixty one will sail before the present month expires.

THE RAINBOW DISASTER.—The telegraphic despatches announce that the following persons were certainly lost on the Steamer Rainbow: James Laughlin and Hiram Charleton, of Alliance; Wm. Chambers, of Cincinnati; Jno. Gallagher, of Salineville—all of Ohio; Jas. Brandard, of Allegheny city; James McLaughlin, Geo. Craig, of Birmingham, and James McHaffey, of McKeesport—all of Pennsylvania; Thos. Newhouse and Geo. Newman, of Carrollton, Ky.; a blind man named Johnson, wife, and two daughters, going to Paducah; an Irish girl going to her mother at Cannelton, Ind.; Mrs. Bond, Memphis, Tenn.

THE HARD TIMES AND THE HORSE MARKET.—Hard times have very sensibly affected the horse market; and those who, a few months since, bought on a speculation, find themselves unable to sell without a ruinous discount from original cost, if at all; while to keep them is no less ruinous than to sell. The New York Evening Post says that at the semi-weekly horse auction held in Crosby street, horses which in ordinary times would be held at $100 or $150 each, were struck down at $20 or $50, and one animal, capable of much service on a farm or before a dray, was struck off at $3.

THE SOUTH CAROLINA BANKS.—In compliance with law the comptroller general of South Carolina has proceeded, at the end of the month succeeding the suspensions, to exact the penalty of five per cent per annum, payable monthly, by the suspended banks on their respective circulations during the period of their suspensions. The following is a statement in the cases of the six suspended banks in Charleston:

South Carolina Bank,	$93,750 50	$390 64
Bank of the State of S. C.,	1,189,999 12	4,958 53
People's Bank,	859,980 00	1,499 91
Railroad Bank,	196,000 00	$20 00
Planters' & Mechanics' Bk.,	148,101 29	$17 09
Farmers' & Exchange Bk.,	646,165 00	2,692 03
	$2,633,925 51	$10,978 90

The money goes into the State Treasury.

The Treasurer (S. J. Walker) of the Convention and Lexington Railroad has resigned his office. It is supposed from his letters, that he disagreed with the Directors of the Railroad with regard to the late suspension of the Company.

DEMOCRATIC FRAUDS IN MINNESOTA TO BE INVESTIGATED.—The Minneapolis, of the 14th, says:

We understand that on Wednesday last a committee of citizens called upon Secretary Chase and formally communicated to him that they had reliable information that forged election returns, poll lists, &c., had been manufactured by certain parties, mostly purporting to be returns from precincts in Cass, Todd, and Pembina counties, in which large majorities are represented to have been cast for Sibley for Governor; and they asked that on the receipt of any returns from these counties they should have the opportunity of inspecting them, and if brought by messengers, of questioning them as to the source from whence they were obtained. Mr. Chase agreed to their request and promised to give them due notice accordingly.

In this connection the Minneapolis gives an account of a Democratic caucus held at the American House in St. Paul, where arrangements were made to bring in forged poll books for the counties of Todd, Cass, and Pembina, in order to swell Sibley's majority. These and other facts will, it is supposed, be brought to light by the investigating committee.

In regard to the result of the election in Wisconsin, the Milwaukee Sentinel (Republican) says:

We give this morning official or reported returns from every county in this State in which an election was held on the 3d inst. Of these, all but four are official, and the reported results in those four are doubtless very accurate. Our figures put Judge Randall upwards of 500 votes ahead on the official canvass, and 200 ahead, including the disputed returns from Jefferson, and not including the votes of several rejected towns which gave Republican majorities. It is therefore, we think, perfectly safe to assume that Alexander W. Randall is the Governor elect of this State. The Republicans have also elected the State Prison Commissioner, Mr. McGraw, and probably the Treasurer, Mr. Hastings. The vote on Lieut. Governor is very close. The Democrats have doubtless elected their candidates for the other State offices.

Sympathy with the Sepoys.

We have heretofore given some account of the atrocities committed by the Sepoy rebels in India. We have also given the resolutions of an Irish meeting in New York, sympathizing with the Sepoys. It must be revolting to the sense of every American citizen, that a meeting held upon our own soil, should express sympathy with the barbarous wretches, who recognize no rule but the law of torture, and with whom even innocence and virtue are but the license for outrage. Yet it is even so. Irishmen in America have espoused the cause of the Sepoys, and an organ in their own country responds most favorably to their sympathy. The following from a Dublin paper shows how Irishmen can exult over the atrocities perpetrated upon English men and women:

"Sweeter than the voice of love, sweeter than the warm accents of friendship, dearer than the mellow sunshine of the heart, is the news of English discomfiture in India to the breast of the Irish people. They are delighted, rejoiced, and gladden beyond measure when they hear of the torture and humiliation of their ancient foe. There is not a vessel of hers wrecked, there is not a General of hers slain, there is not a battalion in her service which is routed and overthrown, that the people of Ireland do not glow over with the greatest satisfaction and delight. They are consequently delighted by the intelligence received from the East, where the forces of the Great Mogul are pounding the armies of Great Britain. Wherever England draws the sword or lights the match, Ireland prays for her defeat, and at no time has she prayed more fervently in that way than she does now, when the patriot Sepoys of India are endeavoring to strangle the British power, and sweep it root and branch from the fair and fertile fields of Hindustan."

"The Patriot Sepoys of India." In the language of a cotemporary, we could not have deemed it possible but for such paragraphs as the above, that anything wearing the form of humanity could regard with any other feelings than those of profound and intense horror such deeds as are enacted by the "Patriot Sepoys" of India.

ENGLAND RECRUITING IN FRANCE.—The Independence Bidge asserts that recruiting for the English service is going on secretly in France, and that one hundred francs bounty is given to each recruit. To make the matter appear more certain, the correspondent who furnishes this news says that he saw one thousand francs paid down on one occasion, to ten recruits. The men thus raised are, it is said, to be sent to India, by way of Alexandria and Suez, as quietly as possible, and when arrived at their destination are to be commanded by French officers.

A negro man belonging to Mr. Stoddard, escaped from his master in Bourbon county, Ky., recently, and was captured on Sunday evening about two miles back of Ludlow, near Cincinnati. The Commercial says that his flight was more connected with a frolic than any serious idea of running away.

COL. DUNCAN.—The Washington Star says the "Col. DUNCAN, U. S. A." who went out with Gen. Walker, is not now an officer in the U. S. Army, though he formerly held a Lieutenant's commission. He was a filibuster in Northern Mexico, years ago, with Gen. CARVAJAL. He had held an office in the Custom House at New Orleans.

The Lake Ontario and St. Lawrence Steamboat Company, whose stock a few years ago was so good that it could not be obtained, has gone into liquidation. The company owes seventy-five thousand dollars, with nothing to meet it but boats and furniture. In order to save the property from the hands of the sheriff, an attempt will be made to organize a new company, and assess the stockholders pro rata to pay the $75,000. A period of thirty days is allowed in order to carry the plan into effect. The capital stock of the company is $500,000, and they have nine steamers, some of which cost over one hundred thousand dollars each.

The Mayville Eagle enlightens the public as to the character of a man named J. O. Bernard, a dancing master by profession, who left that city recently and forgot to pay sundry printers', hotel, and store bills.

Mr. Cooley, the American candidate for Mayor of New York, has withdrawn in favor of Mr. Pieman, who is running in opposition to Mayor Wood.

Wm. H. Shackelford, Esq., has resigned the Presidency of the Paris Deposit Bank, and Maj. George W. Williams has been chosen to fill the vacancy. Wm. C. Lyle, Esq., has been elected a Director. We understand that Mr. Shackelford intends locating in the West, either at St. Louis or Keokuk.—Paris Citizen.

DAILY COMMONWEALTH.

FOR THE SESSION OF THE LEGISLATURE.

A competent reporter will be in attendance in each House, and an accurate report of the proceedings of each day will be given the ensuing morning. The Commonwealth will thus afford the most convenient medium of communication between the members of the Legislature and their constituents, keeping the latter informed not only of the manner in which their own local interests are represented, and saving to the former the trouble and labor of a great deal of private correspondence which would otherwise be indispensable. Beside reports of the proceedings of each House of the Kentucky Legislature, the Commonwealth will furnish a summary of Congressional proceedings, and of all the more important items of the current news of the day, foreign and domestic, political and miscellaneous.

THE DAILY COMMONWEALTH, for the session, will be $1 50. Any person procuring as five subscribers, and forwarding the money, shall have the sixth copy for his trouble.

THE WEEKLY COMMONWEALTH will be furnished to subscribers, during the session of the Legislature, for 75 cents; and for the year, including the session, for $2 00. Persons procuring five subscribers to the session weekly, or yearly weekly, and forwarding the money to us, shall receive the sixth copy free of charge.

gentlemen to whom this prospectus is sent will greatly oblige us by presenting it for subscribers; and if their avocations are such that they cannot give it attention, they will do us the favor to hand it to some person who may be willing to make an effort to obtain subscribers.

Upwards of 1500 lots are already sold and a company of settlers, called "The Rappahannock Pioneer Association," is now forming and will soon commence a settlement. Ample security will be given for the faithful performance of contracts and promises. Nearly 45,000 acres of land, in different parts of Virginia, now at command, will be sold to settlers at from $1 up to $300 per acre. Unquestionable titles will in all cases be given. Wood-cutters, coopers, farmers, &c., are wanted; and 500 agents to obtain subscribers, whom the most liberal inducements will be given. Some agents write that they are making $300 per month.
